Old Business:

- A) Skate Park Memorial name request- Henry Petti Speaks in favor of naming the skate park after Jacob Elijah Rose that died March 21st 2013, at the age of 19. Jacob helped build the ½ Pipe at the Provincetown Skate Park. Is willing to have a sign made by local artist to put on the park.

Treg- Expresses concern of naming the park after an Individual, when the tax payers voted to approve the funding for the park. Suggests that the ½ pipe, that Jacob help build and maintained be named after him.

Carrie- Agrees, and suggests that the plaque be put on the ½ pipe ramp, and an unveiling can be planned for our annual skate tournament in September.

Henry Petti- is in agreement, and tells the commission that he and friends will be responsible for the sign and clean up of the park.

Carrie- Motion to recommend to the Board of Selectmen that we name the ½ pipe ramp at the Provincetown skate park, with understanding that Henry Petti , friends and family are responsible for the acquiring the sign or plaque and clean up of the park.
