New Business A) Treg – On Behalf of the Recreation commission, I would like to introduce Greg Anton, Newly Appointed recreation commission Member! Thank you for your future service to the town and the board.

Old Business:

None

Directors Report:

A) Playgrounds – The department will be receiving 3 quotes for repairs of the East End Playgrounds by the end of April. Brandon has meet with three playground equipment companies, and two have the department replacing all equipment and one company retrofitting existing equipment. These companies will supply the plans and quotes, which Brandon will bring before the board to vote on.

B) Maintenance of Facilities – Brandon will still be meeting with Sandy and Tony about setting up regular maintenance plans for all recreation facilities.

C) Afterschool – Afterschool program is going well, the program has an average of 30 – 35 children per day. We are planning a Easter Egg hunt for the afterschool kids only on Friday April 2nd at 2:30.

D) April Vacation – The department will be providing child care a te4h community center during April vacation. We will do small field trips and activities all week, and run from 9am to 5pm.

E) Basketball Season – The season has finished, the numbers of children participating in basketball were unusually lower than years past. But all had a great season, ending with trophies and medals to all young players that participated.

Assistant Directors Report:

- Still working on adding more adult programs here at the community center. If you know anyone that would be interested in taking or teaching a class or meeting please send them my way.

Minutes: Reviewed and accepted as written. Moved by Cass, Second by Jill

Motion to adjourn: Susan, Second by Greg. Unanimous.
